

DAY 2: CLINICAL ETHICS AND HEALTHCARE IN THE PANDEMIC

PANEL DISCUSSION | 4:15 PM TO 5:45 PM

COVID in the ICU: Dilemmas & Challenges

Dr R K Mani

Director, COVID Management,
Pulmonology and Critical Care,
Yashoda Hospital, Ghaziabad
Past President, ISCCM

Dr Navin Salins

Professor and Head, Palliative care medicine, Kasturba
Medical College, Manipal, Editor,
Indian Journal of Palliative Care

Dr Archana Patil

Director General of Health Services, Government of Maharashtra

Dr Shruti Tandan Pardasani

Intensivist Jaslok Hospital &
Research Centre, Mumbai

Capacity of the public healthcare system: Has the horse bolted?

Strict isolation of COVID patients from families: Necessity or overkill?

Costly experimental drugs & interventions for the critically ill: Need for explicit consent?

Transferring costs of healthcare workers' protection to patients: Necessity or commerce?

Triaging ICU beds based on prognosis and end of life care protocols: Is COVID a wake up call?

Right of healthcare workers to protection vs right of patients to treatment: Achieving a balance?

Inayat Kakar

Campaign for Dignified
& Affordable Care

Dr Anant Bhan

Bioethicist, Past
President, International
Association of Bioethics

Dr Swati Rane

CEO, SevaShakti Healthcare
Consultancy, Vice President,
Clinical Nursing Research Society

Moderated by

Dr Shivakumar Iyer

Professor and HoD, Critical care medicine,
Bharati Vidyapeeth (DTU) Medical College, Pune
Past president, ISCCM

SAVE YOUR SPOT: REGISTER FOR FREE ON WWW.IJME.IN/NBC