APPEAL FOR DONATIONS TO THE FORUM FOR MEDICAL ETHICS SOCIETY

The Indian Journal of Medical Ethics (IJME), now approaching its 30th year, has been published by the Forum for Medical Ethics Society (FMES) since 1993. IJME is a multi-disciplinary academic journal providing a platform for original content and discussion on all aspects of healthcare ethics, as well as law, history, literature, philosophy and the humanities where they intersect with health and healthcare. We are committed to maintaining our editorial independence which is critical to safeguarding the scientific integrity of what we publish. Therefore, wider support from all those who are committed to social justice in health is essential.

FMES is registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 and the Bombay Public Trusts Act, 1950. Donations are eligible for tax exemption under Section 80G of the Income Tax Act, 1961. Donations are solicited only from Indian individuals and entities, as donations from foreign individual/entities are not permitted under Indian law. However, foreign readers/authors may wish to support the journal by:

- Gifting subscriptions to the print or soft PDF copies of the journal;
- voluntarily paying any amount for full text views of individual online articles or PDF downloads;
- Or paying a fee for article processing when submitting an article to be considered for publication
- For more details on how to support us, write to admin@ijme.in or visit our website www.ijme.in/subscribe-support/ Support open-access academic publications, donate to the FMES, corpus for the publication of IJME!
